

Big Card Party on St. Patrick's Night

WOMAN'S COMMUNITY CLUB TO GIVE ONE OF ITS POPULAR AFFAIRS NEXT THURSDAY EVENING—FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE NEW BUILDING FUND.

We used to say "St. Patrick's Day in the morning," but this year we say "St. Patrick's Day in the evening," because on next Thursday evening, on March 17th, the Woman's Community Club is going to give their big St. Patrick's night card party. The affair will be in the Community Room of the Y. M. C. A. Building, and will start at 8 o'clock.

Next Thursday's card party promises to far outshine a similar affair given by the Woman's Community Club on St. Patrick's night last year, but only those who attended last year's party can form any idea of the good time planned for next Thursday evening. As for those who missed last year's celebration, we can only caution them not to make the same mistake this year.

The Woman's Community Club of Narberth has made a reputation for itself not only here in our own home town, but among all women's organizations in and around Philadelphia. It is one of the liveliest, most energetic and most capable clubs in the State, and everything it gives, whether it be a bazaar or a supper or an entertainment, is done in so thoroughly satisfactory a manner that everyone who attends feels that he gets about twice the price of admission—and that's some feeling these days!

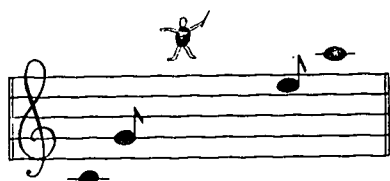

Then there is another reason why folks who like to play cards and who want to join with a live organization in celebrating the birthday of Ireland's patron saint should attend the party next Thursday evening. The proceeds will be given entirely to the building fund of the Woman's Community Club. This organization has not only provided many interesting and very worth-while meetings for the women of Narberth, but it has also helped very materially to give Narberth a standing well up in the forefront of Philadelphia's suburbs.

This club should have a club house of its own, and it is going to have such a home. And when the house becomes a reality—and that will be at no far distant day—it will become the center around which not only the women of Narberth will gather, but to which women who are prominent and active in Philadelphia's affairs and in the affairs of other nearby cities, will come as guests of the Community Club. Many of these distinguished women have already visited Narberth and the club should have a home of its own in which it can entertain its guests in a manner becoming the successful character of the organization.

Next Thursday evening's card party will have fifty tables, which means that 200 people can be accommodated. Tickets are 75 cents each, and may be obtained from any member of the Community Club, and particularly from any member of the following committee, which is in charge of the card party: Mrs. M. F. Alexander, Mrs. J. E. Chap-patte, Mrs. R. Dothard, Mrs. C. P. Fowler, Mrs. H. Hartley, Mrs. H. A. Jacobs, Mrs. J. W. Joyce, Mrs. W. J. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. C. D. Moody, Mrs. J. W. Mulholland, Mrs. N. C. Rowley, Mrs. V. L. Sanderson, Mrs. N. Southworth, Mrs. H. F. Stevens, Mrs. E. Taylor, Mrs. C. Verna and Mrs. C. L. Warwick.

"There's Music in the Air"

Did you hear that harmony bursting from the Y. M. timbers Monday P. M.? What was it? Read on, fair reader, and find thy answer in yon conundrum:

What might a mushroom be?
You don't know? Hully Gee!
'Tis easy! Narberth Choral Societee,
Simple definition—doutchasee!

And that's just what it is—mushroom. It sprung up over night, and now it's going full blast and "on high" with 65 good singers (and very few on the outside) "pounding it out," which foretells voluminous results in the way of an early spring concert, which will be given, it is rumored, some time in April.

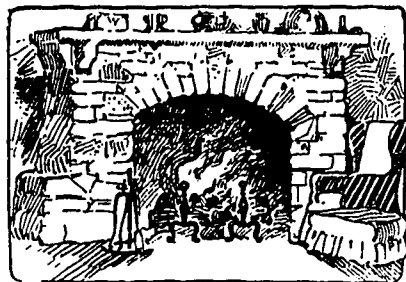

See the "Man with the Big Stick" at the top of this—er—thesis! He's towering over the contraltos, to his left (and maybe those contraltos can't sing!) with the basses way down in the depths of the roaring seas, and in the ethereal, up the sopranos soaring while no fluffiest of the fluffy downy white clouds can ere pursue our lofty tenors! We must admit that the "genie of the wand" is a "nice" magician who can get just about what he wants, with a look here, and a glance there, he can make all the Murphy-McGarrity-Justice-Trotter, et al., tenorline hold a topping high "A" while the Bradley-Hoffman-Taylor-Boote songster-sopranos trill up the scale and down, staided by a rich, full toned Trawbridge-Staples-Denman-Cuthbert contralto-ballast, and at the "base" thunders on the Eashby-Mitchell-du Marais-Hayward-Van Ness bombardments! Thus the magic wand will continue to wield until within a short space of time a real, worth-while musical treat can be offered to the music-lovers of Narberth

10 PARENTS AND GUARDIANS OF THE STUDENTS OF THE NARBERTH PUBLIC SCHOOL.

The Board of Directors of the Narberth School District urgently requests the co-operation of the parents and guardians of children attending the local school, in the matter of regularity of attendance.

There is a State law known as the Compulsory Attendance Law, covering this feature, and the local school authorities are required to observe and enforce it. Failure to comply with the law subjects parents and guardians to a penalty which may be a fine or may be imprisonment.

The age limit for compulsory school attendance is from eight to sixteen years, but the State Bureau has decided that, "As long as a child's name is on the school roll, regardless of the age of the child, he or she must be governed by the provisions of the law."

Official forms have been provided for the use of the school authorities, these forms being notices to parents or guardians of the absence of their children. After a child has been absent from school three days without lawful excuse (personal illness being considered the only lawful excuse by the State), one of these notices must be issued to the parent or guardian by the school authorities. This notice is practically a summons to return the child to the school without delay or submit a lawful reason for the child's absence.

If a child should be absent for even one day, the Principal or his Secretary should be immediately advised, either by telephone or note, the reason for absence, so that a record may be made in accordance with the rule of the State Attendance Bureau. If a child should be ill or disabled and there is a likelihood of he or she being absent for three days or more, it should be so stated, in order to obviate the necessity of issuing the formal notice referred to above.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS NARBERTH SCHOOL DISTRICT.

Paoli in League

At a special meeting of the Main Line Baseball League, held at the Wayne Men's Club on Monday evening last, Paoli was again granted a franchise in the league. When the league held their initial meeting of the year on February 21, the Paoli delegation was not in a position to state definitely whether or not they would be represented on the diamond this year, due to lack of playing material, and were given until last Monday night to come to a decision.

Mr. Wilson spoke on behalf of the Paoli Club and assured all present that the railroaders would make the going tough for the rest of the teams. President A. A. Canizares stated that he was unable to secure umpire services for the salary previously paid and that an increase would be necessary in order to insure a first-class staff of officials. The club managers agreed that an increase was justified. The monthly dues assessed each team have been increased to twenty-five dollars, or a total of one hundred dollars for the entire playing season. Gene Davis, of Narberth, and William Ferguson, of Wayne, were appointed on the Schedule Committee and will submit same for approval at the next meeting.

Among those present were: A. Hauck, Wayne Men's Club; E. Wilson, Paoli; G. Davis, Narberth; W. Rogers, Bryn Mawr; J. Lananah, St. Denis; P. Pyott, Borwyn.

Oh Boy! Oh Boy! But It Was Some Show

JENNIS ASSOCIATION SCORE BIG SUCCESS IN "SUNKEN OLIVE GARDENS"—A JUSTLY DESERVED TRIBUTE TO JIM DONNELLY, THE AUTHOR AND DIRECTOR.

Make a composite picture of the talents and energy of David Belasco and George M. Cohan and the result will be a Jim Donnelly. At least, that's what you probably thought and naturally, after witnessing Jim's latest production, "The Sunken Olive Gardens," which filled Elm Hall last Thursday and Friday nights.

It is to be regretted that the hall isn't larger or that more than two performances were not given so that the many who were turned away by the S. R. O. sign shouldn't have been disappointed.

To write a play, and the words for nine songs, to select several additional lyrics and fit them in to suit the action of the piece, to train and whip into shape twenty-two embryo actors, singers, dancers, hamfatters, etc., and to crown all—stage the well rounded and finished result on two successive nights, to the extreme delight of capacity audiences, is some achievement you'll say, especially when the miracle is worked in the short space of a couple of months.

Even Oscar Hammerstein, who composed an opera in twenty-four hours, had nothing on our Jim!

While we cannot honor Jim too much, we must be sure to mention the rest of the gang, too, and put their names in the paper, or we shall have a heap of trouble on our hands.

Twenty-two Scintillating Stars.

But the twenty-two fellows, all tennis players, and all good ones at that, perhaps, have worked so faithfully to make the affair a success that we do not begrudge them any of the tremendous amount of praise and credit that is their due.

The whole crew must have labored long and earnestly to put the show over as smoothly as they did. Each knew his part perfectly and there wasn't a hitch from start to finish, unless you want to mention the one Bill Boryer took in the suspender of his evening gown when they threatened to slide off Bill's mastodontic frame and seek other quarters.

Certainly Thorny Grugan's portrayal of the Hebrew hotel keeper was a clever piece of character acting. His handling of the dialect couldn't be improved upon. If Thorny's business ever peters out, he will always have an anchor to windward on the vaudeville stage.

There was something uncanny about Albert Stephenson's playing of the J. Rufus Wallingford type of promoter. Albert took to it so naturally that no one could believe he was acting at all. After seeing him as B. K. Shallcross, you are inclined to suspect that he can tell you a lot about matters of gardens, oil wells, etc., if you have any money to invest. He's dangerous!

It was only fitting that Ed Muschamp should have been cast for the part of the flim-flam geologist, Prof. Barology. Like Albert Stephenson, Ed was right at home in his part. He's in the advertising game, you know, and when he so ably and dramatically described the origin and merits of the olive mine and

Editorial

To the Editor of Our Town:

I believe I but echo the sentiments of the majority of Narberth's citizens when I give expression to the wish that Postmaster Haws be retained in office instead of being turned out by the new Administration.

If ever anyone has striven to improve and modernize the local mail service and deserves reappointment, it's our present Postmaster. As a result of his intelligent and earnest efforts, Narberth now enjoys the most satisfactory postal conditions in her history.

A movement aiming at the retention of Mr. Haws should be launched at once, and politics ignored, for the best interests of the people of the "Year Round Home Town."

REPUBLICAN.

To the Editor of Our Town:

Is our policeman paid to do his duty by the town or only to look pleasant. It is about time the dog law was enforced, as it is now three months past due. Why have laws only on paper? Every citizen owning a dog should certainly try to keep the law, if only for the comfort and safety of his neighbor.

FLOWTON.

To the Editor of Our Town:

How about the memorial for the boys of the "Home Town"? Has the idea died a natural death like other projects have in the past? To think the war is over so long and still there is nothing to show for the sacrifice they made!

"MAYOLA."

MAIN LINE COUPLE BITTEN; QUARANTINE FOR RABIES.

Six Cases of Dogs Reported and Health Authorities Act.

State authorities have established a quarantine against dogs in the Pennsylvania Main Line section.

Notices are posted in Ardmore, Havertford and Wynnewood, advising dog owners to keep their animals under guard and on their own premises for 100 days.

At the same time orders of Chief Donaghy, of the Lower Merion Township police, to shoot and kill "on sight" any dogs running at large are effective.

The quarantine is the result of six known cases of rabies in Wynnewood, and the fear that other animals, bitten or in contact with dogs which have gone mad, will be likewise afflicted.

In Wynnewood Mr. and Mrs. George Blair are under treatment to prevent possible development of hydrophobia. A pet dog owned by them was bitten by a "stray" dog some days ago; it resented the pettings of its owners and bit them.

The animal was killed and the head examined, rabies being shown. Mr. and Mrs. Blair were immediately placed under treatment. The heads of six other dogs, all killed in the Wynnewood section, and examined for rabies, likewise showed these dogs to have been afflicted.

Advised of these conditions, the State officials have ordered the quarantine.

MERION CLUB MUSICALES.

Musicals on Saturday afternoons, at 4 o'clock, at the Merion Cricket Club, will be continued during this month. At the concert this afternoon the artists will be Luigi Boezelli, baritone, and Miss Sally Caskin, pianist, 10 years old.

The Juniors' Dance

To say that it was a success is to put it mildly. But it was necessary to be there—dancing to the time of that perfect orchestra, twirling confetti and serpentine among laughing friends, hearing the lovely song specially introduced, and enjoying the cunning novelty favors—in short, to be one of that large and enthusiastic gathering at the Juniors' Dance to realize just how attractive such an affair can be made.

The committees and members of the club who helped to put the dance "over" felt well repaid by the complimentary turn out of "Narberrhites" and "non-residents" who very nearly filled Elm Hall to its dancing capacity.

Elm Hall, in fact, was completely rejuvenated. The lights were artistically shaded, windows charmingly draped and the corners camouflaged into real conservatory corners with palms, floor lamps and wicker furniture as the weapons of art. And so, surrounded by much charm, music and a general spirit of comradeship and "pep" among the dancers, the Juniors' first party "came through" with laurels. We don't need to add "Watch for the next!"

A Gospel Voice From the West

(By the Committee.)

You know what fine, whole-souled folks these Westerners are—genuine, breezy, frank, and true as steel. One of them is coming to Narberth to hold a two-weeks' meeting in the Presbyterian Church, beginning Tuesday, March 15, and running through Easter Sunday. The Rev. Arthur W. Bishop, D. D., is a Western preacher—from Portland, Oregon.

The pleasing personality of Dr. Bishop helps to make his message very acceptable. He preaches the old-fashioned Gospel—faith in the Bible as God's unerring Word—which men like Seth Low and Sam Blythe are telling us is needed today to keep the nation steady as the waves of Bolshevik lawlessness and of the pursuit of pleasure and money are beating upon it. Mr. Van Ness, pastor of the church, with several members, went to hear Dr. Bishop preach at Logan. He has been preaching with good results at a number of Philadelphia and suburban churches. On the way to Logan that night the talk of the pastor and these others turned to the place and influence of the modern sermon, and it was asked if preachers ought to model their sermons after Peter and Paul. Singularly enough, Dr. Bishop preached a regular apostolic kind of sermon that night, simple, clear, and much of it a running narrative of the life and death of Christ and its results for mankind. So if you want to hear good apostolic preaching, come out to hear Dr. Bishop, for you are invited, whether you belong to any or no church.

There were 41 at the choir rehearsal led by Mr. Peter Stam last Tuesday evening—a pledge of the splendid singing that will be a feature of the meetings. The song services will begin at 7.45 each night.

MORE GOOD NEWS!

The chorus choir of the Methodist Church will present a cantata Palm Sunday, "The Crucifixion," by Stainer. Watch for further announcement.

For God and Country, we associate ourselves together for the following purposes: To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate one hundred per cent. ## RAINEY WOOD DOMESTIC COKE

We have been receiving much favorable comment in regard to the coke, as the following example will demonstrate. We believe that the gentleman in question knows how to fire a boiler, and we know that he knows how to be Postmaster.

Narberth, Pa., Feb. 19, 1921.

Mr. C. P. Cook:

I have used the ton of coke which you delivered to me on February 2. It just lasted sixteen days. I used no other fuel in my heater during the period, as I wanted to compare it with the pea coal which I have been using all winter. A ton of the latter lasts, as a rule, just two weeks.

I have an Ideal Water Heater No. W 19-5, and since a ton of coke at $8.75 lasts 16 days as compared with a ton of pea coal at $12.50 consumed in two weeks, I conclude the saving is decidedly worth while, inasmuch as I have found the coke makes as hot a fire as the coal and there seems to be less ashes.

I had no trouble keeping the fire in—did not have to make up a new fire during the sixteen-day period. Would like another ton of coke at once.

Respectfully,

(Signed) EDWARD S. HAWS.

This coke contains 83.45% carbon. Twenty years ago poor Anthracite Coal contained 77.84% carbon, and good Anthracite Coal (the kind we handle today) contained 82.10%—and carbon is about the only thing you want for domestic fuel requirements.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow townsman, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register. As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 3 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.

In addition to the musical ability of this organization, it is run by unusually competent officers and committees on very business-like principles. The first monthly meeting of the Board of Directors and of the entire organization was held prior to and during an intermission of the rehearsal last Monday evening, and several pending matters attended to in concise manner. Mr. Robert Fretz was appointed Financial Secretary; Mr. Justice, chairman of the Board of Directors; Mrs. F. Edick, Assistant Recording Secretary. A Social Committee was also appointed, composed of Mrs. Eashy, Chairman; Mrs. Claghorn, Mrs. Niece, Mrs. Bradley, Mrs. Miller, in conjunction with an Entertainment Committee, of which Mr. McGarrity was appointed chairman, assisted by Mr. Fenno, Mr. du Marais, Mr. Murphy, Mrs. Downes, Mrs. Foote, Miss Prescott. These committees will start functioning by arranging an interesting social affair from 9 until 11 next Monday evening at the Y. M. C. A. after the regular rehearsal, at which time the Honorary Vice-Presidents, Board of Directors, etc., will meet the members of the Choral and participate in the first social "get-together" of the society.

In recognition of the splendid assistance rendered by Mr. Wm. S. Horner in the preliminary organization of the Narberth Choral Society, the Board of Directors has conferred the office of Honorary Vice-President upon Mr. Horner, and Mr. Horner has assured the Choral Society of his continued interest and co-operation.

Mr. Hayward, the President, appointed Messrs. H. Keim and Irving Trotter as heads of two committees composing the Associate Membership Committee, which committee is now taking subscriptions for associate membership in the organization. Any interested music-loving reader wishing to join this Choral Society as an associate member, can secure information relative to same from any member of the following committee: Mr. Hayward, Mr. Irv. Trotter, Mr. H. Keim, Mr. Justice, Mr. George Rose, Mr. A. Whitman, Mr. Edgar, Mrs. Downes, Mrs. Foote, Mrs. Bradley, Miss Prescott, Mrs. Denman, Mrs. Butler.

It is utterly impossible not to enthuse in discussing this Choral Society, its splendid singers, and the remarkable work accomplished in such a short space of time. With such a competent Director as Prof. Niece and such an accompanist as Mr. Earle C. Beatty, of Philadelphia, whom the organization is exceedingly fortunate to secure—well, it just all means that there is at least in Narberth a musical organization, the scope of which can hardly be surmised at this writing, but suffice it to say, that from all present indications there can be few productions such an organization cannot stage. And such is the intensified individual interest of the members of the Choral that several of the male members have postponed business trips in order that they may not miss a single rehearsal.

Until further notice all rehearsals will be held at the Y. M. C. A. every Monday night at 8 o'clock sharp.

Oh Boy! Oh Boy! But It Was Some Show

the fabulous wealth that lay under the Fire House, you were tempted to begin excavating operations at once.

Bob Pattison, the traveling salesman with a mania for home brew prescriptions, was in his proper place, too, as a member of the cast.

Several of the audience were observed taking down some of the recipes, and we are afraid that bodes trouble.

Although effectually disguised outwardly, no one failed to recognize the popular School Director, Terpischorian Expert and Doctor of Tennis, W. Young-spirits Shaw, in the character of Everett, the capitalist. In any capacity you find Walter, he is all over the lot at one time, making a dreadful noise and working his head off. It may not be inappropos to remark right here that as a singer, Walter is a fine fiddler.

Doe Hingley looked a lot like a vamp and wore "her" gown very becomingly. While there is nothing of the feminine in Doe's voice, it possesses a certain soothing quality which reminds you of the way he says, "I won't hurt you" when he is about to blast and back away at a diseased molar.

Wayne Harris made a big hit as usual with his dancing. This time he showed us an Egyptian something or other, a sort of shimmy or toddle, a sinuous rather than sinful performance.

The two Bills, Evans and Wimer, furnished the romance for the play and did their duty beautifully, excepting that they betrayed a lack of familiarity with the osculatory process, something in which many a young lady in the audience would have coached them gladly.

Everyone was charmed with George Rose's singing of "Margarie." It is very evident that George is familiar with classical music. He practices, they say, by singing his baby to sleep.

As for the Chorus, Well —!

The singing throughout was very good. There were no Carusos or Me-Cornicks on the stage, but every song received a hearty and sincere encore, which meant that they were enjoyed.

For a bunch of average voices (dare we say "below the average?") the chorus work was simply great.

Just why Jim picked out the homeliest men he could find and made chorus girls of them is difficult to explain. And when they came out in tights, gee whiz! of all the knock-kneed—but never mind. Of course, there were a few beauts among them, these being Jesse Harris, Harold Fenno (Oh, Harold! we thought your name was Dick), Roy Williams, who looked like "Cutie" all but his waist line, Bill Boryer, Queen of the Amazons; Chick Evans and Unser Fretz. Among the chorus "boys" stood revealed to the admiring gaze of the susceptible young maidens of the town such handsome and youthful matinee idols as Kid Justice, who was all pep; Big Chief Kirkpatrick, Rube Sharp and Oscar Surtees.

Perhaps you noticed Doc Howard's ad on the program, inviting everybody to call at the Brightest Spot after the show. Hope you were not one of those who accepted and found the place closed.

Community Club Notes

PENNSYLVANIA DAY.

The meeting on Tuesday was of particular interest to Pennsylvanians, as the session was devoted to the many good things which have come out of the Keystone State. Besides the patriotic decorations, there was a copy of the State Seal hanging on the wall, displaying the motto, "Virtue, Liberty, Independence." Several of the members of the club had found Pennsylvanians to be noted for more wealth than one dare hope from any one State. Mrs. Frank P. Dunlop gave an account of the "Historic Shrines" of the State, Mrs. William Wimer told of the many "Resources," and Mrs. G. Merritt Davis of its numerous "Industries." The educational advantages of Pennsylvania were brought forth by Mrs. W. L. Owen; the museums were described by Mrs. N. Anderson, and the many Literary Lights of which the State can well be proud were reviewed by Mrs. W. E. Blodgett. Most appropriate was it to Mrs. E. C. Batchelor to talk on art advantages, and no less opportune to hear Mrs. A. B. Ross enthusiastically tell of the State music, which came down to Philadelphia's famous orchestra. An appropriate reading from Alice Repplier was given by Mrs. Edward Muschamp, a vocal solo by Miss Ruth Burboraw, entitled "The Stormy Waves Beat High," was enjoyed, and Mrs. Joseph Barclay rendered "With a Delicate Air," and "Believe Me of All Those Endearing Young Charms," in her usual charming manner.

Mrs. Robert Wood arranged a number of living pictures, and as Mrs. Charles F. Shaw read a sketch of their lives the living pictures appeared of Lady Ferguson, Sally Wister, Deborah Logan, Jane Fairfield, Sarah Hale, Elisa Leslie, and Alice Neal. In reality they were Mrs. Joseph Nash, Mrs. Robert Nash, Mrs. Horace Ruch, Mrs. Edgar Taylor, Mrs. Robert Wood, Mrs. Garfield Atherholt and Mrs. Milton Alexander.

Fletcher W. Stites, who is not only one of the Narberth citizens, but was one of Pennsylvania's "38" during the last election, gave a talk on "The Patriotism of Pennsylvania."

And last but not least was the signing of the club charter.

THE FIRESIDE

Miss Sara Parker, who passed some time as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Manchester at their home in Narberth, has returned to her home in Mechanicsburg.

The Boy Scouts of Narberth will present their third annual minstrel show and dance on Friday evening, April 1, at Elm Hall. Proceeds to defray expenses for the Scouts for one week at the Scout training quarters.

The Bullock Sanderson Post, No. 136, American Legion, Ardmore, Pa., will hold a dance on Thursday evening, March 17 (St. Patrick's Night), at the Woman's Club Building, Ardmore, Pa. Prizes will be awarded. Admission, $1.50 per couple.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Harold D. Speakman Post, 356, of the American Legion of Narberth, will hold their next meeting on Monday evening, March 14, at 8 o'clock sharp, at the home of Mrs. John Smith, 211 Elm Terrace. It is hoped that all the members will try to be there.

Mr. Edwin Wipf, who has been a resident of Narberth for eighteen years and is well known, has opened an automobile repair and supply shop at 125 Haverford avenue. Mr. Wipf has been connected with the Narberth Garage since he was mustered out of the service.

Wm. G. Cumber blew into Narberth on Tuesday morning from San Francisco, Cal. He had left Narberth several months ago. An impromptu reception was held in the centre of the town. When he was "accused" of looking very robust and hearty he replied that he hadn't spent all the time he was away in "dry" territory. Narberth will seem much more natural since he has returned.

The regular monthly meeting of the King's Daughters was held March 2. The ladies were busy sewing in the morning. At noon a delicious lunch was served by Mrs. A. L. Jacoby and Mrs. A. Needham, hostesses for the day. After lunch the President, Mrs. P. C. Derby, opened the business session with Scripture reading and prayer. The ladies are looking forward to a recital to be given at the Metropolitan Opera House April 4. There will be a harp trio, a singer and an interpretative dancer. The proceeds of this entertainment to be used toward the endowment of the Holiday House.
